2. Name, Sections and Cluster

2.1. Name

The name of the ladies residence, located in Bosman Street, Stellenbosch, is Huis ten Bosch (HtB).

2.2. Sections

Sections in the residence include Craven, Katjiepieringlaan, Oorspronklik, Palmal, Backstreet, Windlawaaai, Quality Street, and HEG (consisting of Highway, Entropie and Gat).

2.3. Cluster

Huis ten Bosch forms part of the VicMeyr cluster, consisting of Aurora PSO, Lydia, Dagbreek, Majuba and Minerva.

3. Introduction: Motto and Vision

Motto: The residence has a Latin motto – “Esto Ipsa” – which means “be yourself”. In addition, the residence’s slogan is “Women of Fire”.

3.1. The house values are: Respect, Responsibility, Communication, Open-mindedness & Informed Opinion.

3.2. The badge of the residence is a shield which is divided into four parts, of which the first part (far top) consists of three trees, the second part (left below) consists of three overlapping rings, a third part (centre below) contains two overlapping olive leaves and a fourth part (right below) holds an open book. Underneath this rests the motto – “Esto Ipsa”.

3.3. The interpretation of the emblem is as follows:

   a) The three trees indicate the origin of the name of the residence
b) The three rings symbolise unity and co-operation

c) The olive-wreath symbolises crowning/glory of success

d) The book represents knowledge

4. Liability

The House does not have a legal personality (and is not a legal person); therefore it cannot conclude any contract(s). The House is a non-profit organisation of people who do not pursue, nor strive for financial or any other gain. Any contract(s) which require(s) to be concluded must occur via the Centre for Student Communities and the Department of Law of the University of Stellenbosch. No house member is allowed to make any press announcements or media statements on behalf of the House.

5. Members: First Years and Seniors

5.1. Woman students, who reside permanently for the academic year in Huis ten Bosch, are considered members of the House. House members are classified as first years, seniors and Ou Dames as viewed in the definition of this Constitution.

5.2. House members are subject to the authority of the Director of Student Communities. The management of students in the residence lies in the hands of the Residence Head, Primaria and the House Committee.

6. Qualification and Requirements for Membership

6.1. Admission/placing of students as residents of the House is the responsibility of the Department of Prospective Students of the University of Stellenbosch and occurs within the prescribed guidelines of the University. When a woman student is admitted and membership has been gained in Huis ten Bosch, and she then occupies a room in the residence, it is assumed that she accepts the Constitution and accompanying Rules and Regulations of HtB.

6.2. Residence residents who do not show satisfactory academic progress, or who have been found to have transgressed, will not be readmitted to the residence.

7. Welcoming and Induction

7.1. The welcoming of first years occurs according to the annual Welcoming Programme which is submitted to the Welcoming Committee for approval. This committee consists of the Welcoming HC member, HC of First Years, Primaria and Head Mentor.

7.2. All welcoming activities are contained in the Welcoming Programme and are in accordance with the rules and regulations of the residence’s Constitution and Residence Guidelines of the University with regards to the welcoming of newcomers. All welcoming activities must be in line with the Report of Unacceptable Practices of the University.

8. Leaders (Primaria, Vice-Primaria and House Committee)

8.1. Only candidates who meet satisfactory academic progress requirements for June may stand for election in the House Committee election. Candidates must have resided for at least three semesters in the residence. In the event that a candidate has resided in Huis ten Bosch for fewer than three semesters, the application must be reviewed and approved at the discretion of the Election Committee. Should there be an insufficient number of candidates to qualify for the election, then the requirements for the elections of that current year may be amended in consultation with the Election Committee, the Centre for Student Communities and the University Rules and Regulations.

8.2. Nominations of possible House Committee candidates must be handed in to the chairperson of the Election Committee. The chairperson will be the Primaria, unless she is part of the voting process in which case the Vice-Primaria will assume the role of chairperson. The process of nomination occurs when the nominee completes and signs the nomination form alongside the required amount of seconders as stipulated below. Only current residents with voting rights may second HC-applications.

a) House Committee member applications require 2 persons to second the nomination.

b) Vice-Primaria applications require 4 persons to second the nomination.

c) Primaria applications require 6 persons to second the nomination.

If there is a fault in the application form as stated in the House rules, the nomination will be declared null and void.

8.3. Election process

a) The Primaria and Vice-Primaria applicants will motivate their applications to the House at HC-caucus with the other HC-applicants. In the event that there are a large number of candidates applying for Primaria and Vice-Primaria, a separate caucus may be conducted at the discretion of the Election Committee. Should only two candidates stand for election for the position of Primaria, the election of Primaria occurs directly after the HC-caucus by means of secret ballot votes.

b) Should there be more than two candidates for the position of Primaria, an election will take place directly after HC-caucus through the process of secret ballot votes, through which candidates will be eliminated until only two candidates remain. Eliminated candidates do not become candidates for Vice-Primaria or the House Committee automatically; it happens only if such candidates have availed themselves for those positions.

c) Each voter has only one vote.

d) The Primaria must be elected with a majority vote (ie. one vote more than the half of the total number of votes). In the case of a strike in the voting process, a new voting round must take place within 24 hours of the original voting process. Should a second strike in the voting process occur, another minor caucus between the two candidates will take place. Thereafter another round of voting will take place.

8.3.1. The election of Vice-Primaria takes place within 24 hours after the announcement of the Primaria.

a) Should there be only two candidates for the office of Vice-Primaria, the election of the Vice-Primaria takes place immediately after the announcement of the newly elected Primaria through the process of secret ballot votes.

b) Should there be more than two candidates for the office of Vice-Primaria, a by-election will take place directly after the announcement of the newly elected Primaria by secret ballot votes through which process the candidates will be eliminated to two candidates. Eliminated candidates are not appointed automatically for the election of House Committee; it happens only if such candidates have availed themselves for both positions. The final voting process for the position of Vice-Primaria occurs through secret ballot votes within 24 hours of the day that the newly appointed Primaria is announced and the candidates have been eliminated to two candidates.

c) Each voter has only one vote.

d) The candidate who procures the most votes, is appointed Vice-Primaria.

e) In the case of a strike in the voting process, a new voting round must take place within 24 hours of the original voting process. Should a second strike in the voting process occur, another minor caucus between the two candidates will take place. Thereafter another round of voting will take place.

8.3.2. The election of all other House committee members takes place within 24 hours after the announcement of the Vice-Primaria.

a) The election takes place through the process of secret ballot votes, immediately after the announcement of the newly elected Vice-Primaria. Should a person cast a vote for more than 7 HC-candidates, it is seen as a spoilt vote. However, voters can vote for fewer than 7 candidates.

b) Every eligible member has 7 votes in total but may cast one vote only per candidate.

c) In the case of a strike in the voting process, another round of voting will take place. Should a second strike in the voting process occur, a minor HC-caucus will be held as soon as possible. Thereafter, another round of voting will be held.

d) The candidates with the most votes become House Committee members.

8.3.3. The result of each election is announced as soon as possible, after the election. The names will be announced in random order as determined by the Election Committee.

8.3.4. The term of office for the newly appointed House Committee according to the University starts on the first day of the fourth academic term of the year in which members had been appointed and terminates on the last day of the third term of the following year.

8.3.5. The duties of each House Committee member are contained in the Residence Rules of the University under the section of duties of Residence management, as well as proclaimed in Residence Rules of the residence. When a candidate avails herself for House Committee, she gives the undertaking that should she be elected to the House Committee, she will abide by the rules of the House and will carry out her duties with due diligence, as proclaimed in the Residence Rules.

9. Training, welcoming and induction of new leaders

9.1. Attendance of training sessions scheduled by the Centre for Student Communities of the University is compulsory for all new officials. From the election to establish the new House Committee, until the HC term of office starts, all newly elected House Committee members will receive training from the Centre for Student Communities of the University, as well as the out-going House Committee with regards to general duties and will be assigned their duties by the Primaria and Vice-Primaria.

9.2. The newly elected officials will be formally welcomed by the current House Committee during their last HC-meeting of that current House Committee term.

9.3. Induction of newly elected officials will proceed promptly after the announcement of their appointments. The Primaria will, after her announcement, be accompanied by the first years to the men’s residences, where she will be announced to them as the newly elected Primaria of the residence. Thereafter it is left to the first years to treat or pamper her. After the announcement of the Vice-Primaria and the rest.

10. Resignation of Officials

A House Committee member can resign from her position by handing in her resignation in writing to the Primaria and Residence Head, who will communicate it to the Centre of Student Communities.

11. Vacating Office

11.1. If a House Committee member does not perform her duties as stipulated in the Rules of the residence, the House Committee can appeal to the Director of the Centre for Student Communities that such a House Committee member may be relieved from the office that she holds.

11.2. When a House Committee member is found guilty of serious misconduct, the University has the authority to relieve her from the office that she holds.

12. Filling of Vacancies

12.1. A vacancy occurs in the House Committee:

a) As soon as a House Committee member vacates the residence permanently;

b) when a House Committee member hands in her written resignation to the Primaria and the University Authorities;
c) when a House Committee member is expelled from the office that she holds as a result of her absence of more than two House Committee meetings, without a reasonable or acceptable written notification thereof, or when the House Committee has duly noted that the incumbent refuses to execute a task or duty assigned to her;

d) as soon as the House Committee takes note at an official meeting that the official has been found guilty and disciplined accordingly by the Central Disciplinary Committee of the University;

e) when an official has accepted and must fill another vacant position as stipulated in article 12.2 or 12.3; or

f) when she does not meet the requirements to qualify for satisfactory academic progress.

12.2. Process for the vacancy for the office of the Primaria

12.2.1. When the position of Primaria is vacated, the Vice-Primaria will fill the position of Primaria.

12.2.2. Primaria candidates are nominated as soon as possible and a mini-caucus is arranged where questions will be posed to the prospective candidates.

a. Should there be only two candidates for the position of Primaria, then the election of Primaria will take place immediately after the mini-caucus through secret ballot votes.

b. Should there be more than two candidates for the position of Primaria, then an election will take place immediately after the mini-caucus through secret ballot votes, whereby the candidates are eliminated to two. The final voting for the election of Primaria will take place after this by-election through secret ballot votes.

c. Each eligible voter has only one vote.

d. The Primaria must be elected with a majority vote (ie. one vote more than the half of the total number of votes). In the case of a strike in the voting process, a new voting round must take place within 24 hours of the original voting process. Should a second strike in the voting process occur, another minor caucus between the two candidates will take place. Thereafter another round of voting will take place.

e. The Vice-Primaria, Residence Head and the HC-members who do not avail themselves for the office of Primaria will be responsible for conducting the election.

12.3. Process for the vacancy for the office of Vice-Primaria

12.3.1. When the office of Vice-Primaria is vacated, the post will be filled temporarily by one of the remaining officials of the House Committee members. The remaining officials of the House Committee members form a quorum and will appoint an internal temporary Vice-Primaria from amongst them. Should the office of Vice-Primaria be vacated after the first semester, the temporary Vice-Primaria will perform the duty until the end of the HC-term.
12.3.2. An emergency House meeting is called as speedily as possible, whereby House members will indicate by show of hands their choice for an election or accept the decision and choice of the House Committee to appoint the Vice-Primaria.

12.3.3. Should the office of Vice-Primaria be vacated during the Welcoming period, no emergency House meeting will be called. The Primaria and Residence Head will manage the procedure as needed.

a. A new Vice-Primaria will only be elected should the office be vacated within the first semester. Should an election take place, the Vice-Primaria candidates must be nominated speedily and a mini-caucus must be arranged to pose questions to the Vice-Primaria candidates.

b. The election of the Vice-Primaria takes place on the same night of the minor caucus and the following day the new Vice-Primaria is announced.

c. As the process must take place as expeditiously and effectively as possible, a by-election will not be held.

d. Each eligible voting member has only one vote.

e. The candidate who secured the most votes, is the new Vice-Primaria.

f. The Primaria, Residence Head and the HC members who do not hold the office of Vice-Primaria will be responsible for conducting the election.

a. When the office of a House Committee member is vacated before the end of the first semester, the post will be filled by one of the candidates who availed themselves for election for House Committee and who reside in the residence at the time, but who did not secure sufficient votes to be appointed. The candidate chosen will be candidate number 8 since the HC announcement consists of 7 members.

b. Should the candidate not be able to fill the office, candidate number 9 will be approached, failing which candidate 10 etc.

c. Should the post be vacated after the first semester, the post will not be filled by other house members, but the portfolios of the vacated post will be re-distributed by the Primaria and the Vice-Primaria amongst the remaining House Committee members.

a. Should the House Committee as a whole resign, then the Residence Head calls a by-election.

b. Should a Mentor vacancy occur, then the Residence Head, Primaria and the Head Mentor will appoint a person with a similar academic course as the resigned Mentor. Should a person with a similar academic course not have stood as a candidate for election, then a further opportunity must be availed, after which a Mentor would be appointed to fill the vacancy.

a. Should the need arise for a vacancy to be filled in a committee not mentioned herein and which is operational within the residence, the final decision to fill the vacancy lies with the related committee.

b. Should the decision to fill the vacancy be upheld, an election equal to election of the current committee members, must be held.

13. Finances

13.1. The House Committee member who holds the portfolio of Financial Manager administers the funds of the residence in accordance with the prescripts/requirements of the Residence Rules and with consultation with the Director of the Department of Finances and Services of the University.

13.2. The extent to which expenditures are limited and income are collected, as well as procedures that need to be followed, will be monitored by the HC acting as Financial Manager, Primaria and Residence Head in conjunction with the Department of Finances of the University.

13.3. In the beginning of the Financial Manager’s term, a complete budget will be prepared by her in conjunction with the HC-members with portfolios that need money allocated. The Financial Manager, Primaria and Residence Head reserve the right to alter any amounts as requested by HC-members.

13.4. The Primaria and Residence Head have to authorise the budget prepared by the Financial Manager before it is sent to the Department of Finances for further authorisation.

13.5. The budget and actual amounts of income and expenditures have to be available to House members at any given moment as requested to promote transparency and the residence’s House values.

13.6. The official auditing of the residence’s financial statements are not the responsibility of the Financial Manager, but fall under the mandate of the Department of Finances of the University.

13.7. Every HC-member has the responsibility to prepare a full budget before every project of the residence starts. This budget has to be authorised by the Financial Manager by comparing it to her initial budget. These preliminary budgets have to be available to House members at all times. At the end of the project, these budget amounts have to be compared to actual amounts as they realised during the project. Every HC-member has to include this in their annual HC-portfolios’ reports. Examples of projects include First Years’ Dance, Seniors’ Dance, House Dance, Mother and Daughter Day, etc.

14. Portfolios of leaders: responsibilities

14.1. The portfolios available to leaders are included in the Residence Rules of Huis ten Bosch. All duties, responsibilities and reporting with regards to these portfolios are also included in this document.
14.2. Specific HC-duties and rules are also discussed in detail in the HC Guide as handed out and discussed by the Primaria and Vice-Primaria at HC-camp in the September holiday preceding the official start of the HC’s term of office.

14.3. The portfolios are distributed by the Primaria and Vice-Primaria to the House Committee members after each HC-member has handed in a summary of their requested portfolios.

14.4. The default portfolios of the Primaria includes Unity and Diversity.

14.5. The default portfolios of the Vice-Primaria covers risk-management, safety and the documentation of the Constitution. Additional portfolios can be handed to the Vice-Primaria by the discretion of the Primaria.

14.6. Additional portfolios can be handed to HC-members by the Primaria at her discretion.

15. Meetings: House meetings (general, emergency and annual meetings), House Committee meetings, Section meetings

15.1. House meetings

15.1.1. At official House meetings the following will apply:

a. The House will have two weeks’ notification of an impending House meeting. The dates of House meeting are decided at the HC-camp in the September holiday preceding the official start of the HC’s term of office.

b. At least once per academic term an official House meeting has to be held.

c. Motions and apologies for House meetings must be lodged with the Primaria by close of day as communicated to the House. Late motions will be viewed on the discretion of the Primaria.

d. Motions and apologies can be rejected by the Primaria if the addressed issue(s) can be addressed outside of the meeting context, or if it has little or no relevance to the issue at hand.

e. Motions must be signed by the proposer and two persons to second the nomination.

f. Late apologies and unacceptable absence from the House meetings will be fined in accordance with the fine system of the House.

g. The Primaria acts as Chairperson at the House meetings and the HC of Secretarial duties acts as the Secretary.

15.1.2. During the first House meeting of the fourth academic term, the Financial Manager will discuss financial procedures or matters, including transparency and availability of the budget and expenditures.

15.2. Extraordinary House meetings
