

Declaration by the Home University:

Name:

I hereby state that (name of the student) has the full support of the home university to spend the following period studying in Stellenbosch:

From:to.....

In my opinion, his/her level of English is sufficient.

We hereby substantiate the above, by choosing all correct statements:

- The student has followed English courses as part of his/her secondary school training
- The student has followed English courses as part of his/her tertiary education
- The student's study programme at the home university is offered in English
- The student has proof of English proficiency by means of a formal English proficiency score
- The student's mother tongue/ home language is English
- The student is from a country where English is an official language
- The student has completed an exchange semester at an English institution or where the language of instruction during the exchange was English
- The student has written a thesis for degree purposes in English
- The student has published an academic article in English/ has co-authored an academic article in English/ is part of a research group where English is one of the main means of communication

Signature:

Date:

Position:

Faculty/Department:

Tel & Fax:

E-mail:

Physical Address:

OFFICIAL STAMP