In-person and online participation

Please note that this is an in-person conference, with several online presentations. In addition to the plenaries, four of the nine venues will be online (rooms 223, 225, 227 and 229) for the duration of the conference, and room 221 will also be listed online on Thursday 4 July.

Online presenters are asked to pre-record their presentations and make this available to chairs by Monday 1 July.

While the local organising committee will do their best to ensure smooth online participation, our priority is a successful in-person event.
